TORSO DEATH WOMEN GIVEN

Admitted as Evidence in Murder Trial This Morning

Chicago, Aug. 7.—(AP)— The confession of Mrs. Evelyn Smith, one time burlesque stepper, that she garrotted Ervin Lang and cut off his legs because she was "hounded" into it by Lang's mother-inlaw, Mrs. Blanche Dunkel, was read into evidence today.

It followed by a few minutes the reading of a confession by Mrs. Dunkel, 43-year-old grandmother, that she had been intimate with Lang following her daugh- Cook County Prosecutors 's death and had purchased his lying to avoid losing him to another woman.

Picnic for Am. Legion And Aux. Sunday was Voted Great Success

Sunday was an ideal day for a picnic, and Lowell Park is always the ideal place. The American Legion and the ladies of the Auxiliary, with their families, enjoyed the afternoon and evening to the utmost. Supper was served at 6:30 and about one hundred sat at the long table, which was laden with an abundance of good things to eat. The baked ham, furnished by the Auxiliary, was delicious; and, judging by the number of ice cream ones and the gallons of orangeade treat from the Legionaires) onsumed by the children, the supper surely proved satisfactory to the "kiddies."

The picnic was thoroughly enjoyed by all and Mrs. Marie Hetler, president, and Mrs. Lila Wagner, picnic chairman, wish to thank the Auxiliary ladies and the Legion boys" who helped to make it such 1 fine success.

ENJOYED TRIP TO WEST BY MOTOR-

John Lowery and daughters Misses Mary and Isabelle, and Miss Sadie Lowery returned Saturday evening from a delightful trip to the west by motor. They visited many principal cities, including Cheyenne, Wyo.; many cities in Colorado, and the mountains, spending some time at Estes Park. The returned to Dixon by the southern route, and came through the drouth stricken area of Kansas. They visited in Kansas City, and Topeka, Kansas, the pastures and foliage all burned with the hot sun, reminding the Illinoisans of our own drouth of last sumer. The Dixonites returned home fter a most enjoyable trip.

TEETH AND THE PREGNANT WOMAN: I

When Goethe in "Faust" wishes to tell us that Marguerite is pregnant, he does so by saying that when she feeds, she feeds two. This description is even more truthful than poetic.

It long has been the custom to urge the pregnant woman to eat for two. This counsel is bad, except in so far as it concerns certain food

The pregnant woman should not eat double the quantity of food to which she is accustomed. But she must guard against being depleted of certain minerals by the demands made upon her by her unborn child.

Among the substances which the fetus abstracts from the mother's body are calcium and phosphorus.

Incidentally, it should be noted that the demand for calcium and phosphorus lasts beyond the pregnancy period into that of nursing The formation of milk also taxes the mother's reserve of these two

In order to guard against calcium and phosphorus starvation, the pregnant woman and the nursing mother must consume extra quantities of foods containing these

As to the chief systoms and sign: pointing to a lack of calcium and phosphorus, first comes the rapid development of dental caries. Not many years ago it was firmly believed that the mother had to lose "a tooth for a child."

Among certain classes it was not uncommon to find young women practically losing all of their teeth after the second or third preg-

Today we know that such "softening" of the teeth is due to calcium deficiency and posibly, too, to a lack of vitamin D. Puffness of the hands and face, tingling and numbness of the fingers and toes, painful muscle spasms and contractures, muscle weakness and exhaustion are other signs and symptoms of calcium deficiency.

The foods rich in calcium are principally milk and milk foods, and vegetables, notably lettuce. Eggs contain large amounts of phosphorus.

WHERE STATE'S REVENUE COMES FROM AND GOES

$388,999,244.74 Has Been Appropriated for the Coming Biennium

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 7-(AP)-State government, for which the General Assembly has appropriated $388,999,244.74 for the two year perod ending July 1, 1937, obtains the noney for its operation from many sources and distributes it through numerous agencies for a multitude

Where the $388,999,244.74 the assembly appropriated will come from can, probably, be best demonstrated by an analysis of the state's income during a preceding year along with consideration of subsequent changes made in the revenue laws.

In the calendar year of 1934 the state had a cash income of $176,-

Sales Tax One Fourth

The sales tax-one of the most discussed imposts the state hasintributed less than one fourth of e 1934 receipts. was $39,459,713.03.

In the current biennium the sales tax will have a much larger annual yield, the assembly increased the rate from two to three per cent. Department of finance officials figure it will yield $110,000,000 in the biennium.

Another act passed by the last assembly—that including utilities within the scope of the sales taxis counted on to yield approximately $13,500,000 in two years, making the total produced by the sales tax

Less Known Producers

Remaining revenues producers for the state are many although probably less known. The Illinois Central railroad, required to pay seven per cent of its earnings from charter lines, is counted on for $3- 446 treasury balance consisted of 039.698; inheritance taxes should unspent appropriations made by the vield another $9,781,484; liquor tax- 1933 general assembly es $13.849,520; insurance and corperation taxes $19,040,302; miscellaneous fees, earnings and refunds, Urges Retaliation

These anticipated incomes, totaling $45,711,004, contain many variable items. Income from liquor taxes is on the increase; income improve. Some of the insurance business done.

Using the $45,711,004 as the probable income from these sources, based on their 1934 yields, the total anticipated income from all taxes so far mentioned would be $266,-222,310, or $122,776,934 short of the amount appropriated.

Delinquent Taxes In 1934 the state collected $13.-$9.982.92 in delinquent property Approximately $20,000,000 in such taxes are still outstanding. Much of this amount was appropriated by previous general assemblies but not spent as it was not collected. The last assembly reappropriated it for the purposes, including schools, to which it is owed. Only such part of the $20, so another deduction, one of $20. 000,000, can be made from the total appropriations, leaving $102 .-776.934 yet to be found. This sum can be found in three accounts-a $67,930,000 appropriation for highways, a $9,000,000 appropriation for unemployment re-

Women War With Civic Guards in Irish Outbreak MASSILLON GIRL

Religious and political bitterness flamed into violent rioting in northern Ireland after a mammoth Orange celebration in Beifast and here women are shown in a clash with civic guards at Fermoy. Hurling stones at the troopers, they were dispersed only after the guards, shown advancing with drawn clubs, charged them at the entrance to a viaduct where they had taken their stand. Reinfercements were rushed up by auto before the affray could be ended. In the north Ireland outbreak, five were killed and more than 150 injured.
